"Whoever gives only a cup of cold water ...
- Matthew 10:42

In today's Gospel passage from Matthew: "Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

But how do we lose our lives? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward."

Invitation to Offer Your Mass Intentions

Dear Parish Family,

As a community of faith, we are called to lift one another in prayer in times of joy, gratitude, and need. One beautiful way to do this is by offering a Mass Intention and your intention becomes part of the sacred prayer of the Church during the Holy Mass.

I encourage all families and individuals to offer masses for the deceased, for the souls in purgatory, for thanking God for the favors received, for the special blessings on the day of your birthdays, marriage anniversaries and other important events. It is our faith and responsibility to offer masses for our deceased loved ones every year.

Each year, Holy Rosary needs 160 mass intentions and St. Bernard–St. Hedwig Parish needs 200. If you would like to offer masses for all your intentions, you may do so by contacting your parish office in person, by phone, e-mail or mail. Let us continue to pray for one another, trusting that God hears every prayer spoken in faith.

I appreciate and thank all the families and individuals who always offer mass intentions every year. May God bless you all with good health and happiness and fulfill all your intentions and prayers.

- Father Stan

God’s Creation: A Gift of His Love
Sacred Scripture begins with the words, “In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth” (Genesis 1:1). The story of creation speaks of meaning by answering the deepest questions of life. These words are a revelation of who God is and who we are in His plan. God did not create out of loneliness or because He needed us; He is fulfilled in Himself. The act of creation is an expression of God’s overflowing love. He called all things into existence from nothing: the vastness of the sky, the beauty of the land, the rhythm of the sea, the light of the sun and the moon. And as the crown of His creation, God formed man and woman in His image and likeness, breathing His own divine life into them.

Brats and Hot Dogs every Sunday through July!
Starting at 10:45am until they run out, the Thorp Knights of Columbus will be selling brats and hot dogs to-go in the St. Bernard-St. Hedwig Church parking lot. Brats $5, Hotdogs $3. Proceeds to the Thorp Catholic School. Contact Ed, 715-512-0137, if you have any questions.

From the desk of Deacon Pat:

We are one week away from the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence! Next weekend, we’ll be celebrating our nation’s birthday.

The fourth of July always brings to my mind this axiom: “If you love your country more than you love Jesus, you don’t love your country enough.” The unexpected turn-of-phrase is meant to catch your attention: it’s not “you don’t love Jesus enough” (though that is also true), it’s “you don’t love your country enough.”

As we go about ordering our lives, the priorities God intends us to set are meant to perfect us in love (see Mt. 5:38; Jn. 17:22-23; Col. 3:14; 1 Jn. 4:12). When we put him first, we are better able to love our country and any other person or object deserving of our love. Putting Jesus first in our lives makes us into better children, better siblings, better spouses, better parents, better friends, better citizens, and better people.

Jesus is deserving of all our love. The first and greatest commandment is to “love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind” (Mt. 22:37)—in other words, with all we are. But true love is not a zero-sum game. Love directed toward Jesus does not steal away from love directed elsewhere, to other worthy recipients, like our family, our friends, and our nation. Instead, the love of Jesus perfects our love. Loving him first means that we will be able to love other people and things rightly, and in the best possible way—a way that is unrealizable for us if we don’t put Jesus first.

That’s why Jesus utters those words from our Gospel this Sunday, “Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.” Jesus demands to be the first priority in our lives only because that is what is absolutely best for us and for everyone in our lives—all other recipients of our love.

What’s more, when we love others while loving Jesus first, others encounter Jesus and experience his love through us. His love is made manifest in our lives in order to be shared with others, that they, too, may respond in faith.

I hope you have safe, fun, and enjoyable Fourth-of-July celebrations of our nation’s 250th birthday. But before the backyard barbecues, campfires, music, and fireworks, be sure to put Jesus at the very center of your heart. That’s the way—really, the only way—our country will endure and thrive for centuries yet to come!
